

LOST IN DIMENSION

About our game...

Lost in Dimension is an atmospheric, asynchronous puzzle game for 2 players.

Stuck in alternate dimensions, Cassie and Casey can't see each other, but can sense an otherworldly presence.

Cassie begins the adventure in her family estate: familiar, yet different somehow...

Casey is in a parallel world, he's not sure how he got there. His interaction of the world is entirely text-based Neither has a complete picture of their environment: they must communicate and work together to solve puzzles around them.

Help Cassie and Casey on their parallel journey to uncover secrets of the past!

We're an interactive fiction hybrid!
Experience best of both worlds!

go south

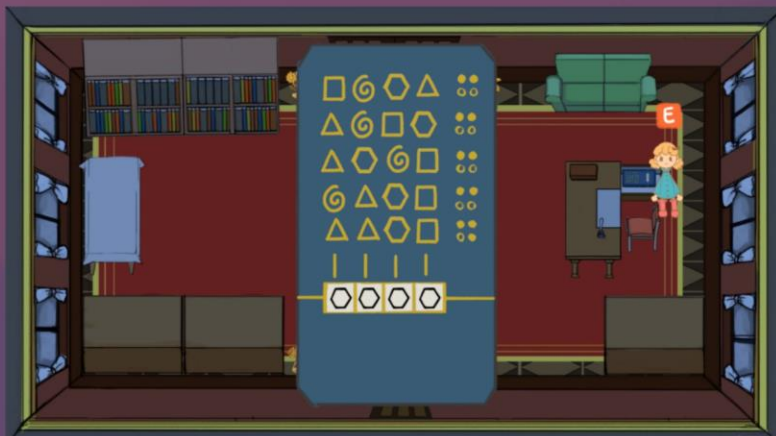

You head off to the south

----Storage Room----

You awake dazed and find yourself in a dark, dingy room. The door is locked. You feel a strange, otherworldly presence. The floor is slightly uneven on one side of the room.
-(Type 'help' for a command prompt)-

There is a box on the floor.
-Type "examine box" to see more information.-

need a 6 digit code to open it.

There's a shift in the air and you see the safe open. A shiny key disappears abruptly from the inside.

A grand, wooden desk sits to the right.

The drawer has opened! A strange box sits inside. I don't think you can interact with it from here.

examine box

You can't examine box
